Greetings Kyla.

How R things?

I'm here 4 the most part. Mad at myself 4 bein-mad. Mad at me 4 bein mad at God, Himself. But it's all my own fault. Misinterpreted a dream. In it I was tellin a guy, let's call him "Bob" that I packed up ~~me~~ (ie bein transferred 2 another prison) Well yesterday "Bob" packed up 2 go 2 the same prison I'm scheduled 2 go 2. I congratulated him (change is good. Plus he goes home in like a year) -n- joked "hopefully they'll pack me up 2"

So I started gettin ready just in case. Whole time I was at work I was hopein-n-prayin they say "go back-n-PACK UP" well obviously those words never came. Once I knew the bus had come-n-went I had 2 confront my self-given disappointment. I try'd 2 get over it playin basketball but that was an even bigger disappointment.

Thanks 4 answerin the age question. I needed closure. Plus it affords me perspective -n- ~~insight~~ insight on what role God would have me 2 play. If that makes sense.

Sorry 2 hear ur credits got messed up. Hopefully that won't happen again. Yeah I've heard of online schools. Cool U can go at ur own pace. I take a Bachelors Degree course that's the same way, long with a written course. Discipline is key (4 me) easy 2 put off when U don't have the demands of ur presence in a class room. Though I'm on pace to graduate next year, probably would've been sooner if I went 2 a brick-n-mortar college.

Think my daughter is doing the same thing. Work-n-learn $$$ 4 college while tryin 2 figure out where 2 go.

Aren't the colleges outta ur state more expensive? Have U considered a Technical college? Perhaps an the job training?

In Wisconsin 4 instance once U work 4 the State U can transfer 2 other jobs outside where U work at. Let me explain. A 40 (Comedians officer) can transfer -n- become a Social Worker (Counselor). I've also seen 40's who were once kitchen supervisors. A 40's who transferred 2 front office jobs -n- even maintenance. One even ~~became~~ became a nurse (course she had 2 go 2 night school 2 learn it but never the less..)

Has ur criminal justice teacher recommended
NB good colleges/internships etc? ps2

Who knew between the bars was that well known
Like how he said the "place is really trustworthy" Reminds me that I'm a public servant. So help me feel.

2 answer ur question - no my faculty doesn't offer iPads. We just got email kiosks in the middle of 2017. Course we have 2 pay 5¢ 2 send em out - in the reception party has 2 ~~pay~~ purchase $10 worth of prepared emails!

Then in like June of this year we officially got "tablets" (ie the Beldge Mini Player w/ 5" screen)
Unlike Arizona here U have 2 buy them 4 $139
Course U gotta get the $9 power cord/adapter - n - most get the optional cover think its $4 (yup)
It comes w/ like 4 games but U can buy more.
Most would rather buy music at $1.95/song
It also has 53,000 free books - not sure the quality though. U also if U have 1 U r emails go straight 2 it - n - U can respond back on it as well. Beneficial cause on the kiosk U only get 15 minutes to respond 2 U r emails. Which barely knocks a dent in the 13,000 characters U allowed.

Just emailed my daughter - n- think I used 250 characters at best b4 time expired.

Still prayin on it I should get one. 3 reasons.

- 1) I need 2 B familiar w/technology which doesn't exist
when I get locked up
- 2) No radio station "up here" plays the music I want
2 hear, like Lelane, Mervyn Sapp, Zac, Southern gospel
- 3) Workin on a memoir/books. Would love 2 B able 2 sit -n- "type" em up on the tablet (-n- email em 2 my mem 4 safe keepin) rather than have 2 buy panels-n-panels of paper -n- ~~hand~~ hand write em. Ouch! Plus I write sloppy. Ouch!

Downside of "tablet" - "internet" addiction. (though if don't got the internet U get my draft I'm sure. I don't want 2 B in bondage 2 electronic devices etc. Even now my TV off. Have 2 budget how much time I spend in front of it.

Well U'r most welcome 4 the advice/letters. It's the reason I was blessed w/ the blog in the 1st place.

U WILL SUCCEED

I BELIEVE IN U

Merry
X-mas
Happy New Year
