Subject: i am we wednesday where do i begin,somethin tellin me i just lost a friend... wonder who it was?

meanwhile questioning my own self. y do i do what i do? should i play basketball ,though its always the same ole same ole. same evil spirits housed in different bodies gotta find a way 2 deal with bein here,though i've had it up 2 here. yikes!

prayin 4 new friends/people... tired of bein around all this hate n violence some of its over the top,some is subtle like co-workers who run 2 breakfast n eat like no one else is in line. newho my heart needs 2 b in a new environment ,keep in mind that the things u see n hear take a toll on u. know way around it. i need 2 see n hear new things. god please help,i'm no good with this broken heart tryin 2 find new things 2 eat. processed food n junk food never fill u up just give u a pain in ur stomach that triggers u 2 put the bag down or stop eatin chicken killbasas. swear is bones it!

guess i'll write a chapter then pray out

love yall
