top of the mornin

it's 8am in earthly time where im located thanks bunches 4 ur thoughtful correspondence .

what r the odds that were both on a journey of thankfulness . don't u love how GOD does things like that? 4 me it's proof he hasn't left me nor 4saken me. what i mean is GOD specializes in given us the right person/people 2 talk 2 at the right time in our lives. ever went thru something n somebody else who went thru /goin thru the same thing pops up ? look at GOD:) sometimes 4 me that person might b a brother in christ but at other times GOD might send a person i been judging in my heart or just a plain enemy . one way 2 get me 2 grow in christ !

i know exactly what u mean bout comin up 4 air only 2 feel like ur drowning in sorrow. my life can b viewed as from my perspective as a plane on the runway that's clear 4 take off but soon i start 2 ascend n tuck my wheels in control tells me 2 land... i obey -try 2- then start the process all over again 2 b told the same thing over n over again...

i must overcome the weather!

hopeful that 1 day my life will consist of highs that out number my lows , right now it's consistently been the opposite

but no time 4 woe is me ,well sometimes but...
