Subject: thankful thursday thankful that I can rest in god's love that i played ball this morning and it was quite fun 4 the 1st time in years:) then i couldn't miss,even circus shots fell. couldn't help but smile and b like "god that had 2 b u!" left in awe of him no way i can make half court shots like that that i decided 2 address an issue by usin the terms satan/emon/god/angels in order 2 spread spiritual wisdom reminded only i can prevent forest fires(ie only i can step on the blessings god want 2 bless me with) that i can see that satan at me since i determined 2 vocalize that once im done with work im gone go harder after my life callin isaiah 49:1-7 that i decided 2 do more listening n less doing that god told me i should b prayin 2 walk in love like i pray 2 b published that no longer am i goin 2 help people hurt me that i finished a chapter of homework that the only way 2 get stuff done is 2 do it i dropped outta college guild...

that im back strivin 2 have fun again that my smile on the way back that im slowin down that I got courag 2 throw stuff away found out bumper mean unusual abundance covet mean u shouldn't even want 2 dont really care bout my name in lights much 2 the chagrin of my fellows who told me my name was on the board 4 ball accomplishment that i have this opportunity

Subject: good friday

good because

i stood down at work as a coworker insulted me under his breath. called me a "lazy motha-----". despite the fact that I planned on scrubbing the floor yesterday n as i was bout 2 do it he said he wanted to do it tomorrow so he'd have something to do . next time im gone stay n do it,no harm in it bein scrubbed twice!

i only got 2 more fridays in the kitchen

but no peace
memoir ?
poetry ?
quotes?
well 2day at the library i seen a book history of great speeches motivational speeches

when the time comes

thought i might be offered my old job 30 seconds later
my old roommate
literally said
"man u was in my dream
in it u were the special need worker n they moved u back over here."

god up 2 something

some one let me see a book the law 4 writers
which is about learning how to succeed in every area affecting the business of being a writer confirmation
god is calling me 2 b a full time writer

Subject: still standing saturday still abiding best i know how growing spiritually in the point of love which definitely takes courage n the upmost of determining being after god in here qualify s u 4 more trials n test as most will seek 2 use u 4 material things mainly food

long as u say "i got u. here go some soup (ramens) crackers meat cheese etc" u the best christian since jesus but the moment u set boundaries that include the word NO then u a "jail house christian " interesting

determined 2 have my god-given life i have 2 deal with alotta stuff then respond how im aware jesus did dont always get it right but still standing

speaking of which i can stand as god continues to teach me like yesterday he taught me from genesis 5:3
how because my daughter made in my image
WE HAVE A NATURAL RELATIONSHIP (does that make sense?)
same thing with my (future) wife !?

able 2 stand as lately there's been divine encouragement 2 b the best me
especially on the basketball court where i tend 2 shy away from playin hard as i can on offence during competition The season y
so as not 2 argue with teammates who also want the ball yet r less capable scorers bu now 7m sensin i have 2 step up 2 the plate cause im gifted 2 amen
