Dear Danielle,

"Wow," cannot be said enough.

Where did you come from all of a sudden, and where have you been all these years? LOL

Your kindness has no bounds.

I hope that you really do continue to read and comment. I have enjoyed getting all of these printouts. I haven't been getting very much mail lately, and when Between the Bars prints out your comments for me, those arrive in the form of a letter. And, I know I don't have to explain to you what impact "Mail Call" has on a prisoner.

With all that you have written, I was kind of half expecting an actual letter to perhaps arrive from you. But, if the blog is all I get, then I'm happy. Thank you.

Thank you for lifting my spirit.

Brightening my day.

M
