

Reply Id: etay

Thank you for what you wrote about my mother. I loved that lady to no end and I truly wish i could see her again. Life has truly been hard without her. I am trying to publish my work on Word Out Books but they have fee which is hard for me to pay completely right now. God willing it will be done soon. I can't wait to be able to see it as a real book in someone's hand that they actually enjoyed reading. I am currently waiting on an answer here in Texas for Parole so I hope and pray that God willing I make it back home to wherever that is for me, God willing. I know I am not a mistake but I hope one day i can do some thing even my own children will be proud of.