oh man

quite tired on 2day

maybe cause I played basketball on an empty stomach not a fan of these meatballs , maybe tired cause of my attitude !

went 2 rec without being prayed up not even quite sure if I was supposed to be there just didn't have the drive or the joy 2 compete then a new guy who's consistently my opponent i can tell has his identity in the outcome of the game he seems 2 always know the score n has the innate ability 2 make one up that always puts his team up i've also noticed that everytime i shoot the ball he has something discourages 2 say intresting

cause he remains silent when all my other teammates shoot.

maybe it's my fault.

ever seen someone n knew

"we not gone get along"?

i don't know

wonder if i'll get mail tomorrow n from whom ?

oops it's presidents day

but

maybe they'll pass out the mail from saturday maybe i'll get a letter from my daughter :)

that's all i got might catch a lil bit of these

trumpet awards

then

it's off to the races

peace

2day was super great !

started at 6:58am

i chose 2 walk in wisdom n avoid a temptation wound up talkin 2 a brother in christ bout my wantin 2 not b here BUT my trusting god is still in control n not madison or someone else i then mentioned a bible story n how it's a lesson in patience n what happens when we impatient the brother then responded

"u don't know maybe god got u here (not minimum) so u can bypass all that n GO HOME" that's just like god 2 allow u 2 through some hardship so he can get more glory n do a bigger miracle in ur life

amen

the proof of this can b found in john 11 n the story of lazarus later at 240pm i went 2 what they call open chapel had my heart set on listening to music but god had a divine interruption planned helped a friend find a book which lead to god leadin me 2 a book

JET RIDE 2 HELL

as i flip'd the book open it went 2 pg 311 where i spotted "20yrs" then it was on

come 2 find out the guy david did 20yrs in prison

(remember me sayin i'm believing god im gone do 20yrs?)

n dig the what r the odds?

his release date

SEPTEMBER 12,2008

well i got arrested on SEPTEMBER 12,1997

god tryin 2 tell me something

i'm listening

i love u priska

soon n very soon

i'll b able 2 bless u with my presence can feel it in my spirit so 2day i got blessed with that new shoe feeling though i didnt try 1 on well till like 5 hours later tried on the right one even so my heart holds on 2 those without shoes or ones that r literally falling off they feet...

did mess up

see god gave me a dream 2 donate my white shoes which i was already 2 do but then i thought

"they don't take donations " not wantin 2 spend $5 on sendin out the shoes i took my nikes that r black n turned them in jokingly saying "i want 2 donate these "

"sure throw em in da box" what?

my heart broke an i wanted 2 run n get my white shoes as i placed the other 1's in the box immediately i was like "can i donate some more?"

was told i could

so now my white shoes gone get scrubbed n donated

this is our heart
