Subject: i am we wednesday dearest priska

how r u?

hurts 2 not hear from u or know ur whereabouts but i understand just seen some words n pictures that reminded me of u. they both were on the cover of the milwaukee community journal n were in reference 2 the 16th annual DADDY DAUGHTER DANCE held in a high school in milwaukee :) they had pics of dads with their daughters along with quotes bout y they brought their daughters there. the 4-5 dads quoted all said something 2 the effect of ensuring their daughters know how men r supposed 2 treat them. i second that/amen well precious daughter i would like 2 take u on A date 2 said dance -provided it's not sold out-n i can find my way there (wonder if racine got one?). so what say u?

meanwhile i want 2 encourage u 2 write down/hold in ur heart things u would like 2 do/places u would like 2 go with dad. then god-willin i will do everythin 2 make each n every one of those dreams come tru. sure somethings on our individual list will b identical :) like goin 4 a run, goin shopping ,seein a movie, goin 2 a cowboys game, takin professional pictures together in matchin outfits or what have u like i amwe t's :)

i am we love dad

here I am

all smiles,tho feeling light headed ,played ball on empty stomach left me clutching my heart n stooping down 4 gasps of air,wind,oxygen n all of the above whew. still rebounding from the whole ordeal . wonderin if my heart murmur acting up,lord knows it's subject 2 get worse at a moments notice .might have 2 get it looked at again. but quite sure my windedness n dizziness from not eatin/takin 3 sips of water in the last 3 days. ate 3 pumpkin muffins hour b4 rec but they did nothun 2 provided energy . truly my trouble started with my disobedience 2 the holy spirit ,heard several whisper "go 2 library" but my flesh convinced me 2 listen 2 the screams of "go 2 rec" so i gotta get on my knees n confess my sinful shortcoming the blessing of 2day is jesus blessed me with a much needed revelation bout myself n y i been so off kilter 4 months long story short i was told that i am guilty of not trusting jesus with all my heart as commanded in proverbs 3;5-6 see i wanted 2 go 2 minimum so bad cause human logic told me - if im not at minimum makin $$$ then no way they gone consider release me in july. hence the anxiety cause heard rumors of another not get'n release cause he was still in rgci when parole came

but after god showed me this shortcoming

i confessed

MY GOD CAN DO NOTHING
