Did you get the answers you were looking for there @ FAB. Tell you what, let's do that phone interview, and then you can ask me all the questions you want. I thought that was a great logo before, but especially now. What do you think. Your balance was a bit short last time I called so you might want to check w/ CTE part. ~~II~~

Jim loving the SS thing. DOT is working on the doc too, I've written out the NM3.0 for feedback, Blogroll, Bly, and those primary support platforms. But only SS can tell how accurate the strategy is. It's in the mail to you this week. Just wanted to let you know. Let's talk soon.
