* REPRISAL *

Well looks like I'm back to blogging. I've tried to lay low, fly under the radar. I'm just not good at. And these people are constantly doing something stupid. Which I'm about to share.

In 2018, JPay implemented its email service into the EDOC. Here in P-Dorm death row housing they installed our kiosk on the recreation yard. These kiosk are our life lines to the tablets being rebooted every 30 days, as well as ordering music, games, books, newspapers ect. Now P-Dorm has 4 rec yards, and now has 2 kiosk on each rec yard. Well our rec officer's instead of dividing inmates up onto several yards, they jam 48 inmates on to one yard. "we get less than 3 hours on the rec yard. we get 15 minutes on the kiosk. so you've got 48 inmates vying for kiosk time within a 3 hour time frame. This is a recipe for chaos!!" These yard officer's have witnessed the inmates getting pissed off at one another and the hostility, and they sit back and laugh. Their amused and entertained by this hostile environment which they have created by packing inmates on to one rec yard, rather than spreading them out across all 4 rec yards. And this isn't a resort of under staffing, NO sir. "This is a direct result of vindictive ill will towards the inmates." For you have 5 and 6 officers sitting on the bench watching this chaotic mess that they've orchestrated!!" They see the inmates getting mad and frustrated over this. It's irresponsible, stupid and extremely unprofessional. "But no one seems to care, at least not until a fight/assault happens. And then and only then will some one pay attention. NO its time to pay attention now!" To stop this madness before one of us gets hurt. And x're been trying to do that. I sent emails out to try to get this resolved. mainly because other inmates who fear the retaliation asked me to do it. well now I'm paying for it. yesterday April 24, 2019 while coming off the rec yard, I got these yard officers making all types of derogatory marks. one actually making a sly remark about moving me into an area where he can have an inmate do his dirty work. oh yes. "There good at that, turning inmates against each other. inmates on two other wings, have over heard them (rec staff) talking about tearing my cell up. which they did back in october, which was reprisal for the letters I sent out last year. During that retaliatory shake down, they damaged my tablet. One of them jammed a sharpe object into the middle of the screen. I reported it, nothing was ever done. Like I've said, this is the Florida Dept. OF CORRUPTION. And I've been warned by staff several times over the past 2,3 weeks, that I'm bringing attention to myself. Two days later, my emails get shut down. yes their playing dirty. And it's time for me to crank this ink pen up, and expose them. Everything I've said here, its documented. one rec yard use at a time, packing 40 plus inmates on a yard, half the size of Florida state prison's deathrow recreation yard. which they only allow a maximum of 17 inmates on, so the FDOC has recognized that deathrow recreation yards shouldn't be overcrowded. yes its all documented. But this is the corrupt unethical world of the FDOC. where reprisal is nothing new. I'll be up dating you as the madness continues. I can only hope that new FDOC secretary mark inch reads this, and takes action.

* Reprisal *

God bless you all.

In Peace & Love Jonnie
