Dear Tofu Queen Erica,

Actually tofu isn't so bad, but most of our meat in here is mostly tofu. Its not so bad health wise, but sometimes id prefer unadulterated meat.

Sorry I took a whole month to respond.

In my own defense I say I've been swamped with law work, and working on other people's cases — demanding nearly all my stamps. I only pull in about $10. per week at my day time job im doin' alright — with the sultan..... im with the sultan of swing..... I hope you accept my excuse. im on a low budget.

Too bad im blocked from making serious $ from my drawings. They look nice, but who wants to hang a picture done by an infamous murderer? Not too many. Can't wash off that stain. Wish I could. Don't wanna be remembered for that. Those murderabilia sites only injure my relatives which im tryin' not to do, but some of my stuff winds up there. Got burnt a few years ago for 60 paintings by a fake gallery. Never got a nickel, but all of them wound up on those sites. Jim
