"PRO LIFE"

No... these conservatives are not pro life! Their antiabortion! This bull that's going on in Alabama, Missouri and Louisiana with these self proclaimed pro life conservatives, is just that, BULL! Cause if they were truly pro life, they would abolish the death penalty. They didn't, they haven't and they won't! Cause their not pro life, they just don't like women having abortions. I'm torn on the subject, I don't like it, but in all honest I'm a prime example of a child who would have been better off aborted. My Dad should have been sterilized. Some people shouldn't have kids. And he is one of them people.

Let's be honest, a lot of these people, not all of them, but a lot are just saying what they believe their constituents want to hear. They know if Roe vs. Wade, gets overturned, this country is going to be chaotic! Women will be getting back ally abortions. And being charged with murder. Yes innocent life is being taken. Cause it is life. But the one good thing about it, they don't have to suffer the pain and anguish of this life. I wish I would have had that blessing. Cause this has been a really hard life! No these people aren't pro life, their just antiabortion. And that's what they need to call themselves. I disagree with abortions on many levels. But PRO LIFE, these people aren't.
