

Dear Ms. Smiley361,

5-30-19

I know its been awhile and I apologize for not sending you a reply alot sooner so, Please Forgive Me as I Forgive You.

You know that you can always write me and you know about my blog so, anytime you want to send me a message just sit down and send it because no matter what you'll always be welcomed and you know that.

The one thing I don't understand though is why have you not told our children to write me a letter? I mean, do they still remember me? Anyways, you know that you'll forever be in my heart and I'll always think of you. I MISS YOU TOO & I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU!

If and when you get a chance I would like for you to send me some pictures of you and our children and maybe Jezzica, Jeramia, & Adrianna can get together and meet one another but I'll ask her first to see how she feels about that. Write me, I want to hear from you.

May Yahweh Bless You and the Family.

Yours Truly,
Corene Grimes
