I do apologize for not sending you a reply to your comment to one of my blog posts and hope that you'll Forgive Me.

Yes, anything that I post I try to write only those things that will hopefully touch someone out there but also it's what is placed on my heart and can be seen in a positive light. I'm still here in prison but only in body because my Spirit is free. Yes, It's sad that me and my daughter were brought together when my Mother passed away but Yahweh always brings out the good from the bad and my Mother is no longer suffering from C.O.P.D.

Thank you for your kind words and reaching out to me as I always look forward to hear from any and everyone and if you should need a prayer you only need to let me know what it is you need prayed for and I'll pray for you but in the mean time I'll keep you in prayer for your safety and blessings.

May Yahweh Bless You and keep you Safe.

In His Love & Service,
Koreus Gamble
