how goes it?

having a good day myself ,4 the most part. made 1 outward choice that i could've done w/out... also made an internal choice i also could've done without...

still all is well confessing my shortcoming 2 god helps immensely ,so 2 does determining 2 do better next time . so b it.

cant beleve i been up the whole 5;50am n its goin on 7pm american time :) normally i would've been took a nap or 2 or...3! workin on a new schedule . got 2 much goin on 2 sleep my life away . always heard "sleep is the cousin 2 death" well jesus got me full of abundnt life. time 2 live it. gulp of fresh air..."gulp" been workin on finishin my bachelors ...n doin one thing atta time. lord knows i can b a workaholic

in get'n outta prison news

the governor hired a parole chairman by the name of john tate the 2nd oddly enuff he's an alderman from my hometown . says he believes people who have done decades in prison should b given a chance 2 prove they have been rehabilitation n then given a 2nd chance. he made the point 2 say,"if we believe the system works then let's prove it" (by letting people go) cause 2 say programming n rehabilitation works then not release rehabilitated people is a contradiction

times up good day
