*Frozen in time
there are no visible chains to weight me down with the million of other bodies piled against the wall trapped inside prison cells listening to the clock ticking in the prison quietness the years moving slowly by with the movement of a second hand all the could ofs, would ofs, should ofs will not change the past we are frozen here in this moment filled with the memories of days gone by toward the end of our time*

sign

*the sign reads
air conditioned inside a polar bear
in a guards uniform standing at each end the back door locked with a sign lite in red letters booming the words fire exit - call 911 for help the windows are barred the table, the desk, the bed all made with American steel there is a fire burning somewhere inside me in this moment I wait to cool my disobedient body*
