Subject: fathers day

dawned on me what 2day was as i did the in touch devotional by charles stanley. "o yeah it's fathers day ."

happy fathers day 2 myself.

was reminded of somethin a chaplain told me 4 years ago

"u have value as a father " easier to believe when u in ur kids life n when they in urs..

meanwhile felt the need 2 "birth something " n since part of prison is denial of procreation privileges

i'll birth

a ministry

shoes n hats

n t-shirts

poems n poetry

business n inventions

twins of some sort

words of hope n encouragement

how tru it is. the preacher preached on how god wants 2 impregnate us like he did the virgin mary. also mentioned how hustlers is entrepreneurs just gotta go legit . god can take u there. amen

beyond that was happy 2 talk to my moms who greeted me with

"happy fathers day"

what a blessing

also encouraged me 2 have a blessed day. i di 4 the most part though i did hear unsettling news bout my daughter :(

but i know it's an answer 2 prayers

like the 1 i prayed 4 her 2 not b a pharisee/play church 2 recognize her need 4 god. amen

plus the situation is an opportunity 4 me 2 practice love'n her like jesus would,did,does

so help me god . amen

HAPPY FATHERS DAY 2 THE FATHERS

man,...

what do i say?

my feet hurt.

days be 軀 zbeen long n nights been sleep less. prayed bout it n was told 2 use the time 2 "listen n/or pray" the 2 r interchangeable . see what happens 2night lord knows im dog tired right now. stayin up cause count in 2hrs plus watchin tv w/my cellmate which may keep me up till 10pm. either way. plus i still gotta eat some chili mac i got blessed with .might just settle 4 a bag of pork rinds,seein they lighter on my stomach ,time will tell.

watched the new show "holey moley' but it's not on my list ne more just not that exciting plus after decades of just watchin tv -not much else you can do locked in a cell- i pretty much got tv figured out which makes it even more boring. after while even new shows r predictable . factor in that everything is recycled these days on free tv neway. 4 example the "show in between " is just a new version of the show "medium" whiwhich also came on on nbc. other than that everything is themed around sex,drama,detectives, comedy,$,n super heros....

WELL B4 I 4GET

I GO TO PAROLE JULY 26

SO HELP ME GOD

besides that no word on my leavin this community 4 a less gated one,mainly cause when u leavin is classified information

it's cool

i'm a survivor

it's god fault

what else can i say?

happy im able 2 talk to my family/parents as of late stayin prayed up cause satan always tryin 2 extinguish my existence

i love yall
