sorry I didn't finish my thoughts...
as i was sayin...

i'm staying away from vulnerable situations . boils down 2 human ecology i guess. mmmm gone study that some more when i get out,"ll help me in any n all endeavors so i done flipped the script on lot a things. perspective mainly. 4 survival sake gots 2 start viewing prison as well i started tellin my constituents "i'm just livin out my car right now. n in between jobs!" b like that. just yesterday told a friend ,"i'm on some mark cuban. livin out of my car till i hit the big one,then it's 2 my mansion..."

yeah I am on some quality of life stuff. hard but i'll manage so as of late i'm doin things ive never done like not playing competitive b-ball with those who identity wrapped up in winning or impressing the all male crowd,but 2 get my basketball fix just gone play 2 on 2 with some alright players. then i joned the wellness group we do art therapy n at some point may have conversation bout emotions n what not. work 4 me. 2day was my 1st day n i enjoyed listenin 2 classical music n colorin would've been more excited but i didnt bring my drawins/design. next time. then at the urge of 3 friends i joined the book club. right up my alley. besides that watching the news again n gettin back 2 DISCIPLINE whether it is writing or studyin. "give me an 'A'" man this memoir gottta get finished bout 2 go organize my notes soon im done here
