

"Blood Money"

So Criminals want to be big boys

Playing with blood money

Theres places for them

Either jail or death

Dead means never coming back

Whats not to understand

They think that their big players with gold fillings in their mouths & bling on fingers

What is this Peacockish attraction

Fatalities come in all shapes & sizes

They don't even have to roll dice

The choices are limited - jail or death.
