Subject: good friday

this a day late but the truth remains

yesterday i woke up temptation on my mind,as i began 2 cast down the thoughts i heard my name on the intercom

"murphy they want u at property " ordered a cable cord n earplugs last week but i knew it couldn't b them cause the check wasnt cut yet. so my mind roamed like buffalo ... maybe it's a big manila envelope from Ray,b good to know how he doin... maybe walt sent some family photos ... didn't know what it could be long story short somebody surprised me with 5 envelopes n a pad a paper

IF IT WAS U

THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH. PROMISE IT'LL B PUT 2 good use... already is actually redoing my mememoir 4 the 3rd time just aint been at peace with the title,but i finally found one that wakes me up in the morning n hopefully wil wak others up :)

ne way as i thanked god 4 behind this blessing i began to think what if we could -we can- change how we see god? what if we started acknowledge ing that its him keeping me in mind when gifts come 2 me? what if when i got blessed i thank the person(s) but also thanked god? ultimately he deserve all the credit.

now wouldn't thankin him n acknowledgement that he keep me on his mind change my perspective n help god stay on my mind?

2day while thinkin on the memoir a thought hit me

HOW MY HEART IS FEELINGS MY FACE FOLLOWS

i love you precious daughter may not seem that way,cause im so farr away but it's the truth as my love 4 u cant b measured by the miles that separate us ive been doing some thinkin thanks 2 a lady testimony i heard on the radio she basically mentioned that her fathers inconsistent love n the pain that he caused her heart influenced her 2 not trust men so much because she viewed them as a source of her pain which led her 2 date women,among other things like high risk behavior . couldn't help but wonder bout the totality my absence since day 1 has had on u. know in my heart that the devil is usin the pain ive caused u 2 get u 2 walk in manners that r inconsistent with gods will 4 ur life,

but it's ok
i love u just the same...

i knew one day that u would encounter/experience the anti-god nature that indwells us humans .knowin what i know i know that you gone b ok. please know that I keep you covered in the covenant god made with us through jesus . amen oh yeah in the last 2 men were released from prison after servin 24yrs 4 murder.... this serves 2 give me more hope 4 release seeing i have 22yr in n didn't kill nebody parole in 23days pray god moves in my situation . i want so desperately 2 b returned to u all greetings n god bless may it concern julia,kyla,priskaransoming the captives,jazminicole,father john,tj,etc.

as i did work on my bachelors of theology a voice came on my intercom

"murphy;go 2 mos 4 parole" i scrambled 2 get ready hygienic wise while prayin,"what do i take?" n confessing "god i hope this aint another case of mistaken identity . (they called me on june 25 4 parole on accident ...)

after put'n my vision board in my folder i ran n recruited prayers from fellow christians like last year i wound up bein the first one there game on i could tell from the mans demeanor this hearin might not go as well ...

long story short he asked me if i had ne clue as 2 when i might b getn on the bus outa here i responded "most people leave after the 2nd time they see u" after that it was pretty much small talk bout my one day actually getting to minimum n what he want me 2 accomplish ;get acclimated 2 society get a job,pay of some child support debt,stay otta trouble... then we'd talk about community custody/freedom that bein all said

i was given a

9 MONTH DEFERRAL (DEFER)

which means im not goin home yet n

that my next possible chance to be released will b in

APRIL 2020

when i see parole again

thanks 4 listening

psalm 103;17 - but the mercy of the lord is from everlasting 2 everlasting upon them that fear him and his righteousness unto childrens children priska i read several psalms this morning and this verse stuck out 2 me. 1st person i thought of was u, as god spoke 2 my heart how he is blessing u as we speak . though we can't always see it in the natural realm god is always working things out 4 our good (romans 8;28).

when i 1st heard this scripture it didn't make sense 2 me as things were goin on in my life that i didn't appreciate ,like not having $ so i could pay someone 2 bring u n ur mom up 2 se me. nor did my sentence 75yrs make sense 2 me seeing murderers still get less time than me. nor did i like my scars or the things i went thru like the time i thought i was goin 2 b raped :(what else? i couldn't figure out y god had me doin all these decades in prison when other people got 2 get out n come back 5-n-6 times...

ne who what ive learned over the process of time is the tru meanin of romans 8;28 which with verse 29 has 2 b taken at face value .

so what its tru meanin is god allows things 2 work 4 our spiritual good make us like jese
