

DAILY PRAYER WITH MANBOYS MADE KING

stupidity accounts for the distance between sins and chapel it can also explain sins in chapel with bones so full of blood that it's hard to sit or stand as each chase another man in the mirror praying suspiciously melodramatic even for a devout.

We imagine a god's eye made full of tears for the victims of these adult males the confused toddlers now grown from weeping tears for the crimes that took their life it's important to remember the past the tears shed for what should not have been give them life they want decades give them decades they want years give them years they want days earned with religious canons in hand and textbooks aside no STEM here to dilute the enlightened mind of ideas about global issues and let the blind lead the blind

We imagine an "educator" to be educated high school minimum college if to be a leader experience as a leader but not of vics onto his lap a leader but not of the experience gained in crime now awash by a god painted over with an ear-to-ear-ass-licking-grin!
