A couple of things I should clarify. #1, Fr. John has shown himself to be more than worthy of being a close friend w/ a TRUE Christian heart. But I'm not religious, nor do I do anything that I do for religious reason. (I think he's right, though, that my Catholic upbringing surely marked me; my Alsatian Catholic culture also instilled a sense of stubborn duty, here a duty to do what's right, even if I get shit on regularly for it...) Religion too often becomes an excuse to leave "others" hang; I'm a good Samaritan, help everyone, hope some help me.

The attached petition seeks criminal charges; I haven't yet won one for myself or others; I have won suits for myself & others. Prison Legal News reported on one suit I won for Battites Wesley, a Black Cristian prisoner (at the time I was into Odinism/Paganism). Like said, I help "others."

Hopefully you all will do the same; THAT will make America great again!
