JEFFERY EPSTEIN'S MURDER

In Jan 2019 I was in U.S.P. Allenwood, where a guard told a prisoner known as "Rocky" that the guy he was getting as a cellie was a "Cho-Mo". Rocky put his new cellie in a rear-naked choke, & when the guy passed out (immediately), Rocky tried to string him up w/ his belt to make it look like a suicide: this is a common way they cover up murders in fed joints.

Epstein's cellie was HUGE, but as an ex-cop he'd get hit at a normal pen. A common delusion in fed joints is that if u kill someone who's more "fucked up" than u , u will then be forgiven, be safe. His cellie could've killed him & had motive to do so; guards there think they're gangsters, work w/ gangsters, set up murders all the time (such happened to me @ Terre Hate in 2015; I had to near kill a 6' 3" 380+lb. cellie who'd been offered a sweet transfer if died; he got the transfer, & 30 lacerations).

No one in power wants to know the truth; they'd gain nothing by the public realizing how hypocritically corrupt the system that empowers them is (murder's wrong, unless they okay it...). It's ALL about what those in power gain; here they've gained the silence of one who pandered kids for them.
