"My Mother's Fears"

Well my mother is really concerned about retaliation over what I'm doing here, opening Pandora's box exposing the conditions here. I was trying to get the Senators in here before they cleaned up the toilet paper and feces that's been out there under the catwalk bars since August 3, when that toilet in 6105 overflowed. But last night Saturday August 25, they finally cleaned it up. Oh well, there is still other stuff these Senators need to see.

A lot of guys have been thanking me for exposing all this stuff, so the staffs attempt to turn inmates against me, is actually having the opposite effect. Cause these guys understand what I'm doing, I'm doing for everyone.

Some of the things I'm trying to do, guys might not like, cause if we get body cameras on these officer's, and mandatory polygraph exams, well its going to stop all the contraband cell phones, drugs and other contraband as well as favors from staff. And there's a lot of corruption that's in this place!! But if it cuts down on the abuse, helps us in force rules, then I think losing contraband isn't all that bad. Then of course I don't get high or buy illegal cell phones. Nor am I paying staff for personal favors. So it doesn't effect me like it would someone that does.

I'll be working on several things this week, I've got an idea. We've got a law suit on the conditions back here, we need them attorneys to bring in a mold inspector. So that needs to be part of the settlement is to have this building pass an inspection, which it will not do. This building is structurally unfit, without even introducing the fact that its contaminated with mold. There's no reason to prepare this building and restructure it for us, until it passes an inspection. So we've got our work cut out for us to bring about these much needed changes. And I more than anyone understand my mothers concern about the retaliation. We've been through it before. And she's actually seen how corrupt some staff are. But its the chance you take when you step out here doing this. Continue to fight the good fight for those of us in this cesspool. God bless you.
