(YOUR SECOND CHANCE)

IN ORDER FOR YOU TO HEAL YOU MUST FIRST COME TO TERMS WITH YOUR PAST MEMORIES, AND DREAMS SO YOU CAN RELEASE THEN LET GO TO BEGIN
YOUR REBIRTH OF WHO YOU ARE. BY: BIG HEARD

(YOUR NOT ALONE IN THIS, AND YOUR ENOUGH FOR ME)

How powerful a few months can be with two people, and how much we've both impacted each other's lives. Never in a million years did i believe you would follow through with ending the pain for good, and yet after reading what you wrote i now fully understand your entire struggle, and how much it has truly control your life.

Your words play'd indulgently inside my mind for a few hours as i couldn't believe what i was reading, and as i read my knees got weak thinking about how i almost lost you forever then my eyes began to tear up. Deep inside i felt that i let you down, and gave up on you entirely. For me it felt like i was fighting a battle alone, and i was causen myself sorrow, and pain then i lost hope inside at the thought of you not wanting me.

I realized in many way i became like the other men in your life, and exited as if you were nothing but an object.(i'm sorry). You are much more then worthy of love, you deserve to be worship as the queen you are because your not ugly, fat or a piece of shit to me, and in fact someone does love you, and believes your good enough for them.

You must understand that your past isn't your future, and that your struggles don't define who you are as a woman, and everything you've been through in life is a part of who you are. You will either allow your sorrow to control you or push you forward in life.

Once you've accepted that your worth as a woman is something only you can control then, and only then will his words no longer be able to control your life, and choices afterwards. Your stronger then you'll ever know, and if you allow yourself to believe just that, how powerful you'll become.

(ANOTHER MANS TRASH IS ANOTHER MANS TRESURE)

I hope with this second chance at life you throw away your fear, and completely allow me to enter your heart because if you open your eyes wide enough you'll see that standing in front of you is a man who cherishes you, adores you, and want to love you along with giving you the tools to love yourself.

It will get better once you allow yourself to open up, and release that bottled up pain inside you.

You chose to reach out to me because deep inside you know i care about you, and you care about me. So let's stop playing, and allow me the opportunity to be apart of your struggle, and growth. I truly do want to speak with you personally, and hopefully you give me that chance, and with that chance won't a day go by without you knowing how much you truly mean to me.
