Subject: Screwing the Kurds again

My heart is sick at todays news about how we are pulling out of Syria. I am all for our American troops coming home, but this stinks of Putin dictating US foreign policy.

All the blood, sweat, tears and sacrifice we made in that region is being pissed away. God help us.

I am sick. We turned our backs on the Kurds in the Gulf War 91' and they were slaughtered by the thousands. Now we're doing it again.

Just give an invitation to Daesh to take over again.

God help us. Now my children will likely be fighting in the Mid East. wdl
