by Nate A. Lindell #303724

Columbia Correctional Institution

P.O. Box 900

2925 Columbia Dr.

Portage, WI

53901-0900

In a motion filed 24 Oct. 2019, A.A.G. Eliot M. Held (heldem@doj.state.wi.us) filed motions to stay & dismiss my suit

-- E.D. Wis. Case #19-CV-255, Lindell v. Pollard, et alia. -- arguing that because I had three prior lawsuits/appeals dismissed for lacking merit that I should not have been allowed to proceed in this case without first paying the 400$ filing fee. (The judge allowed me to proceed as a poor person [in forma pauperis], pay the fee when I can -- but the judge may revoke that, if he agrees with AAG Held.)

You can look the case up using www.pacer.gov, look up the motions, and the response that I will file on 4 or 5 October, which will explain that:

- AAG Held's motions were filed SIX MONTHS after the case was approved, after answering my lawsuit & responding to my discovery requests, thus they are filed in bad faith, a desperate attempt to dismiss a case that AAG Held now knows is strong, as defendants partially admitted (look up Docket entry #27, Defendants' Answer, p.3 ¶19, which admits to ¶19 of my suit [Dkt. #1]) that they moved me to a different cell because I was writing complaints about how a mentally ill prisoner was being treated), and emails that they sent to each other (I obtained them on discovery -- they're attached to the Declaration I'm filing as Exhibits 9, 10, 12, 47 & 49) confirm that staff were obsessed with what I posted on my blog & Facebook about conditions in GBCI's Seg unit.

I can't say whether or not the judge -- Lynn Adelman, Ph. # 414-297-3372 or 920-884-3720, c/o jenifer_dudzik@wied.uscourts.gov -- will accept AAG Held's arguments, or mine. The judge might take the easy way out, dismiss my case (until the 400$ denying...) so he doesn't have to deal with the trial that I'm entitled to (assuming AAG Held refuses to settle my claims on reasonable terms, which appears will be the case). But I know for sure that if 40 people sent 10$ each to

Clerk, E.D. Wisconsin , U.S. District Court

ATTN: Filing fee for Case #19-CV-255, Lindell v. Pollard

517 E. Wisconsin Ave., Room 362
Milwaukee, WI 53202

then AAG Held's motion must be dismissed & I can sue GBCI staff for strip searching me & then moving me into a cell that had feces smeared all over its door & window & denying me cleaning supplies & refusing to have it cleaned.

Please share this with these attorneys, so they'll consider representing me in this case:

If each of them contributed 20$, or one of them decides to take my case, the problem's solved, and prison staff would be careful not to harass prisoners who try to help those who lack the sanity or education to advocate for themselves.

DO NOT SEND ME $$$. I owe a little over 6,000$, & any $ sent to me will be taken for those debts, until they're paid off. Money can be sent to me, though, at: 1-866-345-1884 or using AccessCorrections.com
