

LIFE IS WHAT YOU WANT IT TO BE

WHAT IS LIFE WITHOUT LOVE, AND WHAT IS LOVE WITHOUT PAIN

This question is one we should all ask ourselves because so much of life is love&pain. For some of us the daily thought of love&pain has us confuse on why we have to have them both. Is it possible for us to live with just love? Thats a belief only you can answer yourself because you can control that part of your life.

If you love yourself first you wouldn't seek love from someone who seems to only love you to control you. We can't think that others can love us better then we love ourselves because that thought only gives the next person power over us. Everyone needs that equal in their life that completes them as a person however you shouldn't believe that you have to settle for less because you don't love who you are as a individual. Because once you've learnt to love you; you will want for your partner to love themselves so that as a whole love is a belief that both of you believe in.

However life is also full of pain because of the lack of love you have for yourself. See when you form a connect do to material things that doesn't last, and is the beginning of the pain between the two of you which is also why those type of relationships never survive for long. Nevertheless as time goes on, and the two of you grow out of your young lust, and into adulthood what you saw in that person then maynot be what you want now so life is love, and love is pain.

REAL TALK ALWAYS.
