

Sometimes it takes the water to run dry out of a well

In order to get some attention Once accuse always accuse

First of all let me say I am against sexual abuse to anyone whether it's a child or adult. I am reciprocate of three molestation and a rape. Everything that comes with it, I have suffered. Oh, with that being said but when is enough people Guess what the people who did this to me spent no time in prison. Did I try to prosecute. I forgive them. I have moved on with my life.
~~Let~~ let's talk about Jeff Epstein was he wrong for what he did most ~~definitely~~ definitely. But my understand is that the victims and etc feel like he didn't do enough time. But my thing is if it wasn't but one day. Did he learn his lesson from his wrong. His lawyers have argued that an agreement reached with federal prosecutors a dozen years ago disallows the charges and they say he has committed no new crimes. Key sentence the non prosecution agreement was reached before he pleaded guilty in state court in florida to prostitution-related charges involving underage girls. Afterward, he was required to register as a sex offender and pay restitution to many victims. While he served a 13-month jail term, he was permitted to leave the jail to work for 12 hours a day, six days a week. So you tell me this man learn from his mistake. Didn't get no new charges victims getting his money. If he didn't have the new charges how is all of certain he is accused of having sex with girls as young as 14 has plead not guilty to sex trafficking charges that carry the potential for up to 45 years in prison with the same victims. Wouldn't be falling into double jeopardy.

But the prosecutorial trying to bring a different so it wouldn't seem to be double jeopardy. The prosecutorial does this all the times and gets away with it. Prosecutors plays the wrong games in the court of law a lot of the time to get a conviction. I am not going to say a heret conviction. Mentally this messed this man world up. He already had to register as a sex offender, pay the victims and did 13 months in jail. Now you're trying to give me 45 years: you must be out of your mind this had to be what he was thinking. I am going to die behind these walls. Look all the things they saying about me. Ok let's deal with this August 10, 2019 Jeffrey Epstein has been taken off suicide watch before he killed himself. Why was he taken off suicide watch so quickly? This is a problem for prison all over the United States. Extreme overtime till the officers don't care to make rounds. It shouldn't have taken Jeff Epstein death in order for the spot light to be on the prison or jail because everything surrounding his death. I hate it had to come to this. I personally believe that every security job at these jails and prisons in the United State needs to go back to ~~hours~~ eight hours split shift 7am to 5pm regular shifts 6am to 2pm, 2pm to 10^{pm} and 10pm to 6am there was more officers and they was more motivated to their job. Guess what things was smoother for the judicial system. The reason they cut those hours because there was a big budget cut in the government at the time. Nobody never change these hours back. It needs to go back to 8 hour shifts. ASAP. Nationally all over the U.S.
