Subject: Prosecute and Jail the Democrat Party Leaders

Amazing!

I just heard, once again, the Republican Counsel is attempting to paint a picture that the Democrat leaders of the House have "committed high crimes of misdemeanors in impeaching President Trump".

For a few weeks this theme keeps popping up and now it is being pressed in the impeachment hearing.

★

Clearly the Republicans are hoping to intimidate the Congress' future voting in this impeachment process. The mere hint is clear... Those in the Democrat Party that have pursued this path of impeachment have committed crime, which in turn means they should be prosecuted, jailed and barred from their elected positions.

★

They said earlier that President Trump is "doubling down" to protect himself regardless of the risk to the American people. If he wins this.. The next step will be to prosecute and jail the 10 or so leaders in Congress who are the voice of this impeachment. Watch and see...

★

It will be history repeating itself. It will be the beginning of "Americas first Ceasar" and the disolvement of Congressional powers.
