

From: Linley, William

Date Received: 12/04/2019 04:45 PM CST

Subject: Elephant in the room

I cannot understand why all this silly talk about Biden and some personal beef Trump has with the Democrats. Maybe they think keeping it all on a "personal conduct" issue, that Americans will take more interest.

★

The Arizona Senator voiced that "no harm was done! It's a sham!"

★

How is it that there is unrefuted evidence that "RUSSIAN" agents tampered in the 2016 election process. This is an act of war!

BUT - The President of the United States wants a newly elected Ukrainian President to publicly create a diversion that it was "Ukraine" and not Russia that tampered in the election. Why? Who does this benefit? Only Putin and Russian goals to destroy their only real enemy - The United States.

★

Only Russia, and their propaganda ministry benefits. Not America, not Ukraine and not President Trump. So why on God's earth would President Trump press for this misinformation and misdirection? You cannot see that everything about this reflects that "Putin" has some kind of "control" over President Trump. Does that not scare the crap out of every American!? Does that reflect a direct "threat" to our American security!? Are we blind!? I am a Republican. What is wrong with the Republican party? How can they not see the obvious dangers here? God help us. There is some serious demonic influence going on in our government. Some "blinding" from seeing the obvious truth and dangers. wdl