Subject: Due process and Rule of Law

I hope that at some point the "whistle blower" and facts that spurred this Patriot to sacrifice his/her career will be revealed.

*

Is there anyone that believes that this huge push by my fellow Republicans to "reveal and cross examine" the whistle blower has anything to do with the rule of law? They are desperate to find out who this is. You can hear it in their voices for months. Thank God, no one has leaked. Even though that is certainly what President Trump was hoping. Much of what is being revealed reinforces exactly what Michael Cohen testified. "Mr. Trump doesn't tell you directly to do x, y, z. He hints at what he wants, and his henchmen carry it out".

*

Let's be real. The whistle blower gets revealed and immediately their lives will be destroyed. Their families and extended families will be directly, or indirectly threatened. Maybe even killed as a "message" to shut-up.

*

This all stinks of Mobster tactics which is evident over the many years Donald Trump has conducted his life and business. It also hints at Russian control. Things that should scare every American.

*

I envision the bloody horse head in the bed, as we saw in a movie once....

*

This is real life though!

God help us.

Everyone should be in prayer for our American government. Putin must be laughing his ass off. We are a resilient people and this set back will only make us stronger.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!!
