ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

On Sunday December 1, I proposed to the most beautiful, intelligent, sexist woman on this planet! Claudine. A woman who has shown me nothing but pure love and unadulterated loyalty like I've never seen. She's fought with me to better conditions, and for medical treatment. She's a no nonsense kind of woman that knows what she wants, and goes after it. She's taken my broken heart in her hand, and repaired it. And has promised to always cherish it. And I believe her. And I will always cherish her, Yes I have been truly blessed to have found such a wonderful, loyal and intelligent woman, who's also drop dead gorgeous! So 2020 will be our year. The exact date hasn't been set. When it is I will announce it. Just wanted to announce it to all friends ,family and the world.
