Subject: Iraq efforts are over! Pull out !!

When the Iranian inspired mob attempted to overrun the US Embassy in Baghdad and the Iraqi's just let them waltz right in, just like Libya, it is a clear indication of who is in charge. Not Iraqis.

I served on Embassy duty as a US Marine and while I understand the politics of mob actions, rubber bullets and tear gas to prevent escalation. For this situation it is wrong. They should have unlocked the doors and opened fire killing as many as possible. Then send the message to Iran, Russia, Syria and North Korea..."Hit our Embassy again, anywhere, and we will slaughter you!" Reinforce with the QRF and wait for the next mob to show up. Yes, they would force women and children to mob the embassy. That is their tactic. Now you have daesh and Iran united and controlling the Iraqi government. We turned our backs on the only real ally, the Kurds, there is nothing left for the US in Iraq. We have lost Iraq years ago. Then when the next mob shows up, open up with the Apaches and artillery, land the 82nd and lock down all of Baghdad. Kill every Iranian fighter South of Baghdad until they all hide under rocks, are pushed across the border or are dead.

Then pull every American out of Iraq forever. Fuck em all !!!

It's over America. We are done in Iraq. Accept it. Like Vietnam, the politicians lost it for us. But we shouldn't leave in shame like we did something wrong. Thousands of American families suffer for Iraqi's.

Iran controls Iraq.

The Kurds hate us.

Russia runs Syria.

The Turks are licking their lips.

Time to throw in the towel or get back in the fight for real, and stop pussy footing around.

Pray for Israel. Things are going to get hairy in the next few years now that Iran is in control.
