Love Note

My Dearest Love

1/26/20 Another melancholy Christmas and New Years. It is so easy to become nostalgia when you are locked in such sweet memories of a love like ours. I romanticize all the time about our youth, such sweet memories of our love. It has been one long beautiful romance- it is not so much sleetime memory my love but one long memory the way I believe true love is meant to be. I don't have any bad memories of our youth, our downtown years. I was never scared then because I was surrounded by love of family and friends besides you were there, never a bad memory with you.

The kids woke me up this morning - somewhere in a dream they were playing and laughing while you sit next to me smiling. It is the feeling of you here in my heart and the kids playing on my mind that has me laughing out loud all morning everyday. We share one anothers dreams, one anothers secrets, one anothers clandestine memories. Thats romantic, true trust, true love always and forever - remember when. You have always been my safety net, if I slip I know you will be there to catch me with in your loving heart.

I'll Love You Always
Forever + Ever
Your Steve
