Hello KC,

Thank U, for your thoughts, they are most appreciated, and I employ you to link to my Legal Homepage: www.freeojore.com to learn more about my Unjust Conviction and the current "obstruction of Justice" I'm dealing with. Furthermore, I ask for your support and anything you can do to bring awareness to my Unjust Conviction.

As it concerns Senator Harris, I can assure you I was not worried about her getting the nomination. I knew I her record would come into play, but also I knew she was not ready for that stage. One, I sensed people could see through her; plus I didn't see how she could raise the money needed to compete.

It's possible racism & sexism played a role, but she was out of the race so quickly it's hard to process that into it.

If I may: I like Tom Steyer. Why, he has a proven track record of doing the work on the ground and sincerely Helping people.

Also, what about Amy Globacha(?), she has a similar record as Harris, when she was a prosecutor; she's still in it... But not for long!

KC, I am well, striving to put my 2020 Vision in place, so that I can hire a State Habeas Attorney. Part of the 2020 Vision is the Letter Writing Campaign to the Governor. And the #freeojorecampaign has begun a Podcast: www.anchor.fm/justiceforojore.

Thank U for your comment and I ask that you continue to link to my Blog, new things are in the works.
