

Reply ID: 49hx

March 16, 2020

Hey FrSP,

You changed address. I got the pages from the ship's book and wrote you back — told you that I discovered an old tattered copy of the same book in the prison library, (we don't have a card index in our library and the computer listing is not available to population), No answer from you — but maybe the mail officer is interfering once again.

Could you send me your new address again? All I can find in my file is your old address.

I've been tired. Productivity is low. Stressing about the upcoming parole decision.

We're on partial lockdown cause of the covid19 outbreak in Massachusetts. I'm not sick, but I'm low energy because of worrying.

P.S. I did around 15 versions of that lighthouse, some with a boat.

Hope you are well.
Your friend,

J

James Riva W38533
0CCC One Administration Rd.
Bridgewater, MA 02324