Morning Mrs T

Apparently this is part 2...

Getting over some angry feelings from yesterday...

I'll b alright after a good night sleep, so help me God

Well life is continuing round here. There's school but no groups though a staff member did run our 4 givenness group! So the skinny is staff can come in but not outside volunteers! Even seen that I'm on the list 4 video church on Wednesday.

Nothing else is new

Did perfect the shoe I was working on at work! Already a big hit with the men who seen it! Hey I want a pair of those was the collective response! Guess I can say I am a fashion designer officially now! Quite enjoyed hand stitching details in the shoe n reinforcing the midsole with plastic canvas so that it would stand up like a real shoe! Depending on what happens at parole n my finances I may invest in some yarn n !go 2 town making my own designer slippers even put my logo on em! Yeah that'll b cool n a blessing 2 members of my family provided they send me an outline of they shoe or foot. Know my nephew would loheart guess I know what I'm getting him 4 his bday in September!

Speaking of which spoke 2 my Pops n him n my step mom loved the pillows I sent them last week! Was happy 2 know Kim was able 2 make her name out as I put it into an artistic heart

Regarding the cutters in line! Thanks 4 ur advice. Reminded me that people reap what they sew! N 2 let God fight my battles after all he never at it than me! Promise u that! Plus experience has shown me that things always get chippy round my parole hearing! So I have been embodying ur advice n saying a prayer 2 myself! Specially since sometimes I be in my feelings n just want 2 not b here or least b able 2 say "" I got ... days left!""

Each day I do scars me 2 the point where I'm knowing

I can't I won't ever come back 2 prison again

Technically I've done a life bit (20 years +)

Always tell people

I can't do 2 life bits!

Well there's no judicial precedent round these parts! The federal system has a point system based on a number of factors like ur role in the crime,how much drugs u had,how much property u can forfeit/assets u can fork over,if its ur 1st offence etc In the state system all bets r off. No uniformity whatsoever! That's how I can get more time than a murderer or somebody with multiple body's. just found out a guy who killed 2 people n took a plea 4 60 yrs just got paroled after 27 yrs! Based on that logic one would think I will get paroled in a couple weeks seeing I got 23 yrs in on 75yrs but in here 4 shooting a man one time after a robbery. But in the end I keep doing the math n 2+2 ain't equalling 4!

So I have no choice but 2 trust God's timing n find a way not 2 grow bitter.

I put myself here but I can't put myself out!

God is judge.

My sentence is in his hands

Psalms 17:2

N 5 yrs ago he gave me a dream that I did 20yrs in prison! So I'm holding him 2 that though I have no idea when the 20yrs started or when they end

So I hold me 2 my word

God I'll do as much time as u want so long as u with me

Thanks so very much 4 ur thoughtful words of encouragement. My heart needed 2 hear that.

Thanks mrs t . Much appreciated ur wisdom regarding existing in a microcosm. Loved how u mentioned "" there's no room 4 evolution "" how try it is ! Definitely my beef with the system! I am unable 2 fully evolve here!

Told em at one parole hearing

Feel like I'm stuck! In a diaper yet I'm fully capable of making it 2 the bathroom with out any incontinence yet I'm denied access n told 2 go on myself cause I haven't Ben in the diaper long enuff 2 appreciated not being in it!

My strength of character or whatever

Is

Gods fault!

:)

Sometimes I don't want 2 b as strong as I am but I can't help it...

Once wrote a poem line that says

Gotta b so strong 4 others ,I never getta chance 2 b weak

Psalms 27:1

The lord is the strength of my life...

Know all that I'm going through is 2 refine me in the fire n prepare me 4 the great destiny God has 4 me. Amen Joseph comes 2 mind.

Shocked that 60 days in is strictly volunteer based. I was 4 sure that there's was some million dollar reward at the end! Specially 4 all they could potentially go through. Rather go on survivor 4 all that trouble . can do without being bullied or jumped on,stabbed etc! Rather get bitten in the jungle lose my gut! N possibly win a million dollars or something! Least go on big brother n win $500,000 for 3 months of being in there n playing games. I'm more than 60 days in n prison ain't no place 2 b volunteering 2 b! But I understand...

What is are? Got an idea but the words not in my dictionary!

Heard bout the Dog the bounty hunter guy!

Wish I could see the show n chop it up with u bout it but we don't get whatever channel it come on!

We don't get a lot of channels n definitely no cable!

Well prisoners have a lot of tricks 2 the trade some obvious some unobvious like putting the phone in a coffee cup n going out the cell like u seen on the show!

Well since I was lil I always heard

Something bout the camera

Who doesn't want 2 b on TV?

We see this with children on the big screen st sporting events. Soon they see themselves they blush n do a lil twist!

But what I've learned bout the beauty of the camera is even if u know its there after while u gone eventually b who u truly r

They got cameras in here n people still b people 4 good n bad!

Well think I'm gone send this n give u part 3 2 look 4ward 2

Spouse 2 learn how 2 really use this thing in the coming days from a roommate verse in technology

Night
