

Love Note

4/13/20

My Dearest Love:

I've always known that you were there by my side, not ahead of me, not behind me but an even partner with me matching my every step. Without your smiles of encouragement knowing that you had my six in every fight I may have laid down long ago. The I love yous your eyes spoke has kept my heart strong for a long time I remember sitting on the living room couch making out like the two teenagers we were - the pot bellie stove in the corner glowing red, lighting up the room casting our shadows on the wall - I never told you then but that pot bellie stove was burning the bottoms of my feet & but the feel of holding you in my arms was even hotter burning the impression of your body on me forever. Oh yes I've been meaning to tell you I love you, always have. I have always held you in my arms every night all these many years remembering every kiss every word we did and didn't say & sweet dreams of all our yesterdays.

I Love You Always
Forever & Ever
Your Steve
