Subject: Just Saying

Greetings 2 whoever out there listening....

It's 7:25pm Wisconsin time. I have no idea what that means but I said it 2day was horrible as it relates 2 my responses n the st8 of my mental emotional health!

Started off OK as God awoke me at 6am. Had the bathroom 2 myself which is a rarity. But due 2 this Level 3 social distancing thing they created 2 prevent getting sued we eat an hour later!

It's 1 unit at a time but they called in 2 parts (yellow n green then after they get there its pink n blue turn 2 go mind u it's a row of tables between the 2) I guess so...

NEway after 2 boiled eggs toast n a scoop of farina that always has more bran than farina I returned 2 my room n set my heart on finishing a section of my seminary homework, which I did in fact finish at bout 11 am!

N that's when things started 2 go down hill. People woke up with the usual banging,complaining,domestic violence, attitudes, vulgarities, etc. Yikes! 9 months of this has taken a toll on my heart n spirit.

Did U know the things U hear n see take a toll on U 4 better (Psalms 48:8) or 4 the worse (2 Peter 2:7-9)!?

So imagine everyday hearing from 6am - 1am hearing/ seeing rated R lives lived,scams run,super selfishness, cutthroats, thievery,adultery,lies,murderous language,yelling, screaming,The N-word,the B-word,foolio,punching, kicking,pounding, tapping,clicking,just NE thing 2 make noise!

N they wonder Y I want 2 leave prison!

Though my humanity may also cuss on occasions out of frustration n though I'm in here 4 committing 4 felony's I no longer fit in prison. Best way I can explain it is by a line I read in a book

" U can't have a Master who thinks like a slave n U can't have a slave who thinks like the Master"

I THINK FREE.

4 this reason my stomach is sick 2 its stomach of hearing people brag bout shooting people or cheering at people getting killed in movies n TV shows! Sick of hearing people rap down the halls bout killing n-words. N did u know in here every race refers 2 themselves n everyone else as the n- word? From Japanese 2 Hmong 2 natives 2 Europeans 2 Mexicans...

So my day went sideways as I encountered these demons. Plus at lunch a c/ o who got mad at somebody in front of me yelled at me! Yeah in prison it's socially acceptable 2 take ur anger out on others :(I griped back " I'm trying 2 see where u want me 2 sit!"

Convicted of my attitude I aggressively prayed 4 God 2 help me!

Still I found myself responding in the filthy flesh

Tryd 2 call 3 people at 2 pm but no cigar!

Did listen 2 God as He told me not 2 order shorts n weight lifting gloves n 2 just get envelopes n paper. Gotta get my books n poems n t-shirts ideas organized. Yeah got 2 make a career outta my ability 2 put words 2gether. Amen. From bumper stickers 2. Grating cards 2 slogans 2 mission statements 2 quotes ...

Time 2 work on going home

Means embracing my entrepreneurial spirit. Did U know my 1st bizz was selling toys 2 classmates? That was 1st grade. In 6th grade I sold Crybabies, Tearjerkers, n bubble/candy 2 my peers. Sometimes wearing my 6 pocket pants 2 days in a row! Just 2 meet demand. Also sold crayfish 2 fishermen! Eventually I sold marijuana. I say all this 2 say I got it as a business man. Just this time I'm gone stick with selling things like clothes, designs, portraits, poems, crafts, song lyrics, inventions, etc.

See y'all at the top!

So as of 2day I'm 16 days from my 5th PAROLE hearing!

Believe this will b my last or least 2nd 2 last!

God been speaking 2 me bout going home by the end of this year n 2 quote Acts 27:25 "I believe God that it shall be even as it was told 2 me" Convinced I'm gone get a 6-month wait of some sort n then a release date. :)

Meanwhile

JULY 15 keep coming 2 me with a sense of release (of some sort)

Speaking of being Home I can't help but think of What not being in prison means 2 me...
