Gracious greeting 2 those reading this...

Glad 2 meet Ur acquaintance...

Happy Birthday!

2 somebody

Happy Cinco Do Mayo

Beyond that just wanted 2 record a dream I had,so amazing I tried 2 redream it!

Yeah like that ever happens!

Not sure Y U can't though?

Maybe its just me!

Have yet 2 b able 2 return 2 a dream after being awoken or after dreaming it....

Well....

In this dream

I was in some kind of hilly snow capped mountainous land that U only see in movies. Despite the snow the weather felt summerish,so I didn't have my coat neither did my daughter,who had wrapped her self around me like 5 year olds do! This came from her natural anxiety of being harmed as we were in the process of being surrounded by hordes of groups of goons adorning attire similar 2 those in the Lord of the Rings franchises.

Well in a swoop they all descended upon us!

That's when the miracle happened!

As they were within 5 feet of us the leader of one herd said,"where'd they go? They were right here in front of us!"

He n all the members of the individual clusters then began 2 gaze around searching 4 me n my lovely daughters whereabouts!

However WE stood boldly huddled together in the middle of them!

"This is truly odd",I pondered,they can't see us! but here I am looking them squarely in the face!?"

Like in the movies , the camera zoomed in n then swirled around us giving the audience a view of the shocked n flabbergasted pursuers.

In my heart n soul all I could silently proclaim in the depths of my spirit was,"what a God we serve. U said trouble would b all around us but not come near us. What a God?" In addition I couldn't help but feel/experience the love 4 me n Priska that God has in His heart, even despite our repeated attempts n desires 2 always get it right!

As I shared the gist of the dream with a brother in Christ he reminded me of the time Elisha smote his pursuers with blindness! (4 those interested the story is encapsulated in the Bible - 2nd King chapter 6 verses 8-23 or U can just read verse 18!)

Thanks 4 listening
