

Liberated Facts

Sometimes we as a Society forget that the abolishment of the enslavement of any people doesn't always liberate the enslaved facts about interrupted and destroyed spiritual and cultural history of enslaved persons, and Tribes.

Today, we are now seeing the results of the post traumatic effects of enslavement within the born free generation that have been intentionally denied access to totality of the reality of the existence of what we know as same sex activities pre-colonial era of the enslavement of Black people all around the world.

The born free generation continues to be victimized and conditioned to turn against fellow Black people that identify to some degree of what is now known as LGBTQIA, which by default means, Black people must now become the abolisher's, and take an active position for the liberation of Facts of Black History.

Black people must not confuse the actions of Liberating Facts with the other so-called methods of requesting empathy from oppressors, and fellow Black people, for empathy is not required for the demand of, and command of true freedom.

The Liberation of Facts also doesn't require military action, acts of violence, or any protests, ~~because~~, because, any fact exists as a defender of itself.

We don't look into the faces of our amazing born-free generation and say that they are 3 fifths percent of a human being, because we, even without facts to disprove such ignorance, and our youth know that, to be untrue, and unacceptable.

Why then should Black people continue in ignorance, in spite of mounting liberated facts that that hatred was imported into Africa, not homosexuality?

Gay people are 100% human.

Our validated disdain for the horrors of the acts of Buck-Breaking ~~S~~icking methods forced upon our honored Ancestors must not be used as a misguided untruth to abuse our born free generation, because the liberated ~~F~~act is that rape is still rape in spite the sexual identity of the victim.

Liberated Facts show that some of these victims of Buck Breaking identified as what we now understand as LGBTQI+, before they
was enslaved, and so, Buck Breaking in the 1600's didn't make me homosexual circa 2020, no more than Breeding Slaves to make Slaves Big and STRONG to produce a STRONG workforce didn't make any of my biological sisters identify by what we recognize today as Heterosexual, or that would also mean that enslavers bred heterosexual hyper Masculinized disdain for homosexuals.

Abuser's of the misuse of history, can't have it both ways, especially with foreign religions.

A Male God, and a sleeping Male human Adam, produced a human female Eve, for the sole purpose of providing the male Adam with a, "Helpmate", which by the way, to this day, has never been proven to be a fact.

"That God, had no problem creating other earth species male and female in prior verses of the source, that story, ~~derived~~. Yet, when it came to Man, God has this epithany? that he ~~either~~ forgot to create a human female? or?

How many wives did Abraham have? How many wives can a man have in America? That God, dealt directly with Abraham, and so-called pastor's say that they talk to that same God who they say is the same today, yesterday and forever, word games still suck huh?

Guess it is impossible for a man to commit adultery if he has many wives?
OR is marriage still defined as the union between a man, and a woman?

The use of the word Eunuch in that book is fact to me that man is a great embellishing writer, and a great disrespector of his own God, and the intellectual capacity of his fellow human.

Black people continue to abuse fellow Black people of this born free generation with dispositions that are flawed, and realistically non-factual.

Who today will tell a pastor that his book says for a woman is to remain silent in church service? Anybody?

Yet, a female pastor today can verbally abuse LGBTQIA people from the pulpit, and during church service? We call that selective morality. Kim Burrell I love your singing voice, yet you speak like a stone pastor.

I believe the Woman Silence verse is very disrespectful to my amazing Aunt Joyce who is an incredible Evangelist, and all of the amazing female Gospel Singer's and Rappers, the female program announcer's, the female Church Administrators and powerful women of God, but that's just my Gay Black man's opinion, but at least, my opinion is based on facts.

Black people can benefit by understanding that the knowledge of a fact is not required for a fact to exist, for a fact is a fact whether we accept it or not.

We are on a mission to liberate enslaved facts about our own history without begging for empathy or acceptance from anyone, however, there is a demand here for equality, and the revolt against social and economical injustice, physical, spiritual, and cultural abuse and deprivation. And that's a Liberated Fact!

Heterosexual people should not be allowed to dictate as so-called experts of something they profess not to be.

The old presentation of gay people that claim religion made them straight is no more valuable than straight people being turned-out as homosexual, there is a duality there for claim that doesn't apply to the rest of the homosexuals on the planet, as heterosexual people make the crucial mistake that all gay people rise and or fall to a cookie-cutter common standard of degrees.

Homosexual pedophilia is equal to heterosexual pedophilia for pedophilia has more to do with the under age of a child, not the sexual identity of the adult, and this sick conduct is well documented in heterosexual people and cultures all over the world, and that's a horrific liberated fact for stone tappers.
