

Why is that my blog is silent for long periods?

Sometimes I don't even have the words to say. So I set back to observe, listen and learn. When it's time for me to speak it will leave a lasting impact in my life first then my audience. I been watching the news etc. I been saying to myself How can I reach my audience because there is so much going on at one time. My ~~quietness~~ quietness means always in preparation for something. I am getting ready to load my audience with alot of topics. I hope you find the one that applies to your situation. But first I want to leave you with this nugget. Proverbs 17: 27, 28 (a man of knowledge uses words with restraint and a man of understanding is even-tempered) (Even a fool is thought wise if he keeps silent and discerning if he holds his tongue.) This proverbs highlights several benefits of keeping quiet; (1.) It is the best policy if you have nothing worth while to say (2.) it allows you the opportunity to listen and learn. (3.) it gives you something in common with those who are wiser. Make sure to pause to think and to listen so that when you do speak, you will have something important to say. Congratulations Dreamers. You deserve to be in America. Keep following through on your goals - you are somebody special. You can do anything you put your mind to. It doesn't matter what President Trump says.
