

July 22nd 2020

B-day was July 20, 2020

①

July 22

Just opened my food TRAY, and SOME Jerk left Finger Tracks in my SMashed potatoes, as if they didn't realize the top of the tray is Risen.

This place don't Suck,
The people do. Didn't eat tonight.

The VENTS in this 150 year old Prison are too Low to the Floor for my Generation to Make Beatz and Spit Flowz, so we do it "NER THE WIRE!"

You see, The cell doors are open bars like in the old Cowboy movies, but they added a black Rotiron Mesh cage on the outside, so we can hear each other for quite a distance

Now, we don't need to be at the bars to be heard, so with one headphone on listening to "d3'VENT" beats coming from our in-cell TVs, and the other ear open to each other, we can remain COVID-19 virus spread free, without compromising our HipHop Culture.

The vents here only "pull in" air, so no spitte escapes unless some idiot is at the bars yelling like a dumbass, disrespecting Gay people 😞.
I'm soooooo glad that we created d3'VENT because we don't need to see each other to be together, and being alone is soooooo not healthy, especially right now in this pandemic. It's really bad here, really bad.

Big Hug
