

Is it Punk, Yet?

7-21-20

write me! D. Haraszewski
AL2622 C-Yard
P.O. Box 409060
Ione, CA 95640

If you want to make really proper Punk to serve your family and friends this holiday season, try my Grandmother's classic recipe:

You Take...

2 lbs. Ground Grass-roots

3 cups Subversion

13 oz. Freshly-picked Frustration (undemoralized)

1 full stick of Optimism

3 to 5 mostly functional Instruments

1 Unique Voice

A pinch of musical talent (optional)

1 loaf of Youth (If unavailable, a gallon of Youthful Energy should suffice.)

2 complete Rolls of Duct Tape

1 1/2 servings of assorted Stickers

* Add Amplifiers to taste

Mix everything together and cook on high in a garage or a friend's bedroom until thoroughly obnoxious.

Sprinkle liberally with a sense of humor (wicked or playful; both will work for this dish.)

Serve piping hot on a fresh or frozen Uni-High Beef Rag.

Pairs well with Fascist Pig.

Enjoy!

(Oh yeah... chocolate chips. Very important to include chocolate chips)