Dear Lona 186,

Howdy! Thank you so much for writing again! I'm really glad to hear from you!

I also want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for your support. It matters a lot & it really does make a difference.

If I may, I feel like I should devote a few paragraphs about Rec & would like to do that for everyone in my next posting. I hope that's OK.

I have actually been re-reading the "Harry Potter" books by C. K. Rowling. Someone has them in this unit. I just finished Book 4, "Prisoner of Azkaban" before I took a break to write. I remember last reading that book when I was at FIC - Miami back in 2005 or so. Crazy.

I am so glad to hear that you support dismantling the PIC. There are organizations out there working toward that goal & I (dumbly) encourage you to join forces. THANK YOU!!

Fortunately I got rid of that old cellie when we moved units & have been blissfully alone for almost five weeks now! Woo Hoo! It is so rare to have time alone in prison & it's wonderful when it happens.

That, though, is likely to change next week when we have more moves (see latest post). With any luck I'll get a good cellie - I think I'm owed one!!

Again, thanks so much for writing & I'm so happy to hear from you!

Love
Hugs!
