

Eunuch

Tonight it is with great honor, that I engage my own, with this question.

Was The Book of John, and The Book of Revelations in the Bible, written by the same sex lover of Jesus of Nazareth?

I'll invite your attention to The Book of Matthew, Chapter 19: verse 12.

The backstory here is Jesus is answering a question about divorce, when he says:

" For there are Eunuchs, who were born so from their mother's womb; and there are eunuchs, who were made so by men: and there are eunuchs, who have made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of heaven. He that can accept it, let him accept it."

It appears so far, that Jesus understood that some people just can't accept it as an inverse, but I'm so glad today, to tell you, that I accept myself, and I accept you.

Now, for clarity let me require that you study for yourself, the word Eunuch; you can Wikipedia the word for some research, but for now, allow me to offer you this brief crash

The etymology and origins of the word eunuch is from the Greek word ekne ("bed") and ekhein ("to keep"), effectively "bed keeper".

We often view the definition of "a castrated Man," and also "Castrated Women" for an ugly history within both ancient, and modern society, and yet, you will be able to explore this area during your search, but also be aware that you'll also find amazing details as well.

We know that Jesus was not a Christian, but of THE Way, and we understand THE Way, and it's origins cultivating in ~~an~~ ancient India, and all ~~over~~ the world that Jesus knew, especially through his educational accessibility to more information than most children, and when we factor in, being the Only begotten Son of the Most High God, it would be safe to speculate that Jesus used the word eunuch with confidence.

The Ancient Indian Kama Sutra refers to people of a "third sex" (triteeraprokrti), who can be dressed either in men's, or in women's clothes and perform fellatio on men, this term has been translated as "eunuchs".

An educated Jesus would have had access to the knowledge of existing eunuchs in his times, and also of famous eunuchs that date back to the 5th Century B.C., from Persia and all over the world, including ~~the~~ African Continent.

I lay this foundation for our message here because most of what we are taught in Church today came from early Christian theologians like Origen, who said that he castrated himself, based on his reading of Matthew 19:12.

Tertullian, our great Christian theologian wrote that Jesus was a eunuch, and that the Skoptoy believed that it was true, and Tertullian also wrote that he knew, personally, the writers of The Book of Matthew, and that he was a eunuch.

The writer of The Book of Matthew was also a tax collector named Levi, the son of Alphaeus, Levi is known all over the world as Matthew, an apostle and evangelist.

I personally traced Tertullian, from North Africa, and it looks like he started the spread of what we know as, Charity, caring for others, Brotherhood here, One body, Brothers & Sisters as family terminology for all, yes, multiculturalism.

Tertullian was mentored by Irenaeus, who became a bishop, and Irenaeus at 16 years old became the pupil of Polycarp, who was killed in Smyrna at the age of 86 by Lyons, and now, can we all take a wild guess who Polycarp's mentor was?

Yes, Polycarp was the pupil no other than John, as in the writer of The Book of John, and The Book of Revelations, and the one who described himself as The Disciple that Jesus loved.

I plan to repeat the above as much as possible in this work.
