Evening on this heat advisory day, in Wisconsin anyway! Think it's 90° something. Don't mind the heat it's just people's heated temperatures that get to me during this time of year! Going for a walk outside helps, specially by my lonesome. Yeah guess I been into social distancing b4 it was a commandment. Also enjoy hot showers on days like this to help me cool off! Cold showers never been my thing even when it's upwards of 100°

Beyond that praying they pack me up tomorrow or at the last minute on Monday to get outta here! Think I might pack up just for the hell of it! Just cause sometimes leaving is fun! Reminds me of a quote I wrote weeks ago...

"Sometimes the most loyal thing someone can do for U is leave"

Respectfully I'll put comments to ur 3 comments in one piece, which saves me 20¢

I am staying safe n healthy. Wisdom helps! Once over heard or read "never be anywhere where u can be accused of something!" I put that in practice now! I also maintain a self imposed curfew! Men love darkness more than light cause their deeds are evil. So being out in the late night has nothing for me. Gotta stay spiritually healthy by not exposing myself to harmful elements. Key word OSMOSIS

Health wise still working out/stretching n trying to eat less pink slime n processed foods, sadly that's all prison offers so u eat it cause u don't choose to starve to death, specially possessing the notion that freedom is round the corner. I can better serve my community under house arrest!

Regarding the picture!

Mrs Tenzintenzin didn't do it on purpose. Her post to u n me goes on to elaborate on the honest mistake that she made.

I have already apologized for coming off as if I was falsely accusing her! I was just over anxious n prison adds a certain level of paranoia to daily life, as people do steal pictures. Some will front like it's their girlfriend n what not. Yeah this environment something else. Ever had ya draws stolen out the shower?! Yikes!!!

Any who there was no withholding on her part as noted in her post as well.

Proud to say I did receive the picture of her as well as the house, a dream come true. Both will go in my dream journal as God led me to her location in June of 2019 n I officially met her acquaintance in December! Only God could do that!

Thanks the compliment on the 2 poems.

Surprised, but glad U had fun reading them!

Hope they left u inspired, motivated, n in deep thought..

All I can ask or ever hope 4

However I take all compliments as words of encouragement n use it as fuel 2 write more

Once I get the money 2 publish it I'm sure U'll enjoy n have fun reading my collection of poetry entitled

WORDS OF LIFE

Ain't wrote a poem in quite sometimes been focusing 2 much on release plans n coming up with the $$$ 2 publish another book that was recently accepted by a self-publish company. Also focusing on song lyrics,which I'm new 2!

But here's one from couple months ago!

Sometimes

Heaven on earth,

Is broken

My crys outspoken

My English,broken

God. Dis ain't fair

Every moment taken my air

R U even there?

Question if U care

U say,

I'm blessed wit blessings

2 B a blessing

Circles of pain,my lifes caressing

Aches

N heartaches

Theological debates

What will it take?

Who goes n who doesn't

Who is n who wasn't

How 2 get there, we fussin

Wonder if u bar'd 4 cussin

Or being born Russian

Living in dust'n

Cause somebody told U,"U nothing"

But God can breathe n all of a sudden

U up 2 something!
