Thanks for the transcription of this work, tested positive for COVID-19, trying not to write Grandkids in fear of spreading it, so I'm trying to maintain my sanity by blogging my crazy thoughts.

At the end of this play, the character "d2Kid" begins reading a few things about ancient Egypt, if you're interested, we added some of it to some pretty cool music @danielrainey YouTube, checkout the Playlist titled "AZANDE Press + " and enjoy the Readings, I've been wanting to do that for a long time, and simply as people to share the Playlist with the Parallelboy; or Parallelgirl in their life.

I have very bad symptoms from COVID-19, and all I could think about was, if this thing kills me, like it has done so many here, at least my Fam and GKids would be able to come to this blog and pick my brain. I'm doing alot better now, how about you? Please stay safe outthere, this virus is no joke, I'm in pretty good shape. and it still almost had me,

Enjoy AZANDE Press + playlist
Thanks Again
