Hello, As for the painting, we use acrylic paint or basically any thing we could get our hands on. The painting itself, it came from a calendar, but with a little twist added to it. In truth, the inspiration of the cabin by the creek or lake in the moon light is how I feel at times, alone and distant, but peaceful at all times. Undisturbed, living in perfect balance within, while allowing divine essences to ascend in the ether. An harmonious soul reaching out:-) :-) Thank you for your time and lovely thoughts.:-)
